SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That Section 7 of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland, Edition of 1924, title "Elections," sub-title "Supervisors of Elections," be, and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

7. The Board of Supervisors of Elections of the several counties may have clerks, with the consent of the County Commissioners, for their respective counties, at such compensation as the said County Commissioners may fix. The Supervisors of Elections of the City of Baltimore shall have a chief clerk at a salary of thirty-five hundred dollars ($3500), one clerk at a salary of three thousand dollars ($3000), one clerk at a salary of twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars ($2,750), two clerks at a salary of twenty-two hundred dollars ($2200) each per annum, two clerks at a salary of nineteen hundred dollars ($1900) each per annum, two clerks at a salary of eighteen hundred dollars ($1800) each per annum, two clerks at a salary of seventeen hundred dollars ($1700) each per annum, three clerks at a salary of sixteen hundred dollars ($1600) each per annum, one carpenter at a salary of two thousand dollars per annum. The said clerks, and in the City of Baltimore, the chief clerk, and clerks and carpenter shall be appointed by the respective board of supervisors and shall be removable by them in their discretion. In Baltimore City, the chief clerk, with the approval of the supervisors, shall from time to time, secure such temporary assistance as may be necessary for the proper transaction of the business of the office, but the compensation of such assistants to be paid by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, upon requisition by the said supervisors shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one year. In Washington County, the Supervisors of Elections shall appoint a clerk who shall receive an annual salary of not less than six hundred dollars ($600.00) per annum, which salary may be increased by the County Commissioners in their discretion. The clerk so appointed shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Board of Supervisors of Elections, and shall be removable by them in their discretion at any time. It shall be the duty of the clerk in said county, with the approval of the Supervisors of Elections, to secure such temporary assistants as may be necessary for the proper
